

Branded Mobile App

A Centralized Location with Every Bit of Information Your Community Needs

Benefits of a branded mobile app:

- Reach most of your audience where they spend a lot of their time: mobile devices
 - Safe and consistent messaging across all channels
 - Single content management system for ease of use

With a mobile app by SchoolInfo, you can:

- Increase student and family engagement with a mobile-first communication strategy
- Translate most of your content to over 35 different languages for optimal inclusion
 - Make resources like forms, documents, and calendars available with one click
- Send instant push notifications to everyone—ensuring your message is received

How it Works:

It's as easy as 1, 2, 3!

01

Once your app is complete, it will be made available in both The App Store and The Google Play Store.

02

Stakeholders will download the app to their mobile devices, while administrators curate content in their app's dashboard.

03

Educators easily and quickly connect with students, parents, and staff using their new-found mobile-first communication strategy.
